

FIFA FOOTBALL AGENT EXAM

14 Sports Law's Preparatory Course
2024 Edition (May 2024 Exam)

Course Details

Exam Overview

- Prior to the de-regulation of Agents in 2015, FIFA used to conduct an Exam for Agents as an Entry Barrier. A similar barrier has been reintroduced by FIFA by virtue of the FIFA Football Agent Regulations, 2022 ("FFAR") which has been promulgated to re-regulate Agents, owing to which they now have to pass the FIFA Football Agent Exam (subject to certain exemptions) to be able to conduct their business.
- If you successfully passed the Agent exam prior to 2015, then you can take the benefit of the aforementioned exception, contingent upon the satisfaction of two conditions- firstly, you must apply for a new license before 30 September 2023, and secondly, you need to prove that you were registered as an intermediary at a member association between 1 April 2015 and 16 December 2023.
- If you are not eligible to claim the above exception, then you need to pass the FIFA Football Agent Exam in order to be able to continue your business of player/coach/club representation. This exam shall be conducted by FIFA twice every year until November 2025, and 2026 onwards, there will only be one exam per year.
